

Biography

Pastor Kevin M. Miller

President, Alaska Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

Kevin Miller joined the Alaska Conference in 2007 serving as pastor of the Anchorage Northside Church and Ministerial Director before being elected president in 2016. He also serves as a chaplain with the Alaska Army National Guard. Kevin holds a Bachelor of Arts in theology and a Master of Divinity. He loves working with people in all stages of their journey with Jesus but particularly enjoys helping them exceed their own expectations in ministry as they answer His call.